

Wayne Dalton - AIA CEU Course Summary

'Commercial Operators'

AIA Course Number: G0101

Category: Project Planning & Design

Sub-category: Building Systems, Materials, and Assemblies

of Credits: 1 Hour

Credit Type: 1.0 AIA CEU HSW LU

Delivery: A Live Lunch and Learn

Cost: None

WD Provider Number: K301

Course Description: Attendees will better understand how to select and specify commercial operators for various applications to ensure the Health, Safety, and Welfare needs of building occupants.

Learning Objectives
1.	Understand how different types of commercial operators are used in various applications to protect property and occupants
2.	Select and specify commercial operators for various applications to ensure the health, safety, and welfare needs of the building's occupants
3.	Learn how the various options with Commercial Operators for solutions to building security and accessibility
4.	Understand how accessories vary and can be used to enhance the production, safety, and welfare of building occupants

Facilitator Qualifications: Wayne Dalton facilitators have been trained in the AIA CES guidelines and presentation skills. In addition, they have received in-depth training in the field.

How Course Taught: The AIA CES facilitator utilizes a Microsoft PowerPoint format to provide an in-depth overview of how to enhance sustainable development and questions.

Target Audience: Architects, Designers, Engineers, Consultants, and Construction Professionals. This course is basic and meets the needs of the professional at every level.