

Wayne Dalton - AIA CEU Course Summary

'Wayne Dalton High-Performance High-Speed Rolling Door

AIA Course Number: IPD631

Category: Construction & Evaluation

Sub-category: Construction Administration of Credits: 1 Hour

Credit Type: 1.0 AIA CEU HSW LU

Delivery: A Live Lunch and Learn

Cost: None

WD Provider Number: K301

Course Description: Course attendees will better understand High-Performance High-Speed Rolling Door types and applications.

Learning Objectives
1.	Understand the different types of High-Performance High-Speed rolling doors and their applications
2.	Understand how HPHS rolling doors ensure the safety and welfare of occupants by using sustainable and energy-efficient design
3.	Understand how HPHS rolling doors can reduce airborne contaminant flow, increase productivity and traffic flow, reduce operational and energy costs, enhance security
4.	Evaluate criteria to select and specify the appropriate rolling door for various applications, by understanding the different features and options

Facilitator Qualifications: Wayne Dalton facilitators have been trained in the AIA CES guidelines and presentation skills. In addition, they have received in-depth training in the field.

How Course Taught (LIVE): The AIA CES facilitator utilizes a Microsoft PowerPoint format to provide an in-depth overview of how to enhance sustainable development and questions.

Target Audience: Architects, Designers, Engineers, Consultants, and Construction Professionals. This course is basic and meets the needs of the professional at every level.